

New signing!

Sutton Kersh have signed up a unique online service aimed at making moving house easier.

The leading north-west property agency has teamed up with Chester-based iammoving.com to provide its customers with a free service to notify all key organisations of their home move and address change.

Meanwhile, the group have also expanded by opening a new office in Ormskirk, which is located in Wheatsheaf Walk.

Paul Sutton, managing director of Sutton Kersh, said: "Ormskirk boasts a wide variety of housing styles and locations due to its mix of town and country living. Sutton Kersh is well experienced in dealing with all property types and will bring a wealth of expertise and marketing ability to Ormskirk and the surrounding areas."
